Dated 29th January, 2013.

Points for discussions with Commissioner-cum-Secretary, FS & CW Dept. and Managing Director, Oscsc Ltd during meeting at Khandagiri, Bhubaneswar.

1. Revision of Transport Charges to Rs.12/50 for 1st 10 KM and to 65 paise per qtl per KM for distance beyond 10 KM on both Paddy and Rice.
2. Increase in rates of Mandi Handling and loading charges for paddy.
3. Increase in rice handling charges to Rs.5/- for delivery at RRC and Rs.10/- for delivery to FCI.
4. Immediate Payment of cost of new gunny supplied by millers at the present market rate of Rs.42/- per piece without linking it with delivery of rice.
5. Revision of rate of new gunny and gunny depreciation by GOI in the cost sheet of CMR for 2012-13 KMS.
6. Waiver on realization of insurance charges on Oscsc Stock from millers.
7. Payment of interest on cash security lying un-refunded for years together.
8. Reimbursement of Mandi handling charges to millers where ever the services are provided by the millers on request from PACs and district administration during KMS 2011-12.
9. Reimbursement of pending Vat and RMC fees to Gajapati Millers for 10-11.
10. Settlement and payment of bills of millers without requiring unwanted certification by district office for KMS 2011-12.
11. Inadequate supply of Gunny bags by Oscsc. Some districts have not received even a single supply.

12. Purchase of paddy by PACs:

- a) No infrastructure is available for handling, grading & storage of paddy.
- b) Millers are forced & threatened to do entire work of Mandi Handling.
- c) There is no quality check and millers are forced to accept whatever paddy arrives at the Mandi irrespective of its quality. No help is accorded by the local administration who is generally interested to ensure only lifting of paddy by millers to avoid law and order situation.
- d) In view of above, let Oscsc arrange lifting of paddy through its own handling and transport contractors from the mandies with the help of quality analysts for delivery of FAQ paddy to the millers.
