Bhubaneswar-751012.

Dear Sir,

Sub: Clarification on Security Deposit for 2011-12.

We understand that the matter of furnishing Security Deposit by Custom Millers for 2011-12 was discussed by your honour during Zonal Meeting with RDC, Cuttack during which all CSOs of coastal belt were also present. During the said meeting, it was clarified that paddy to the extent of 10 times of the value of the Security Deposit furnished by the Custom Miller will be delivered to them. In case of more delivery of paddy, the concerned Custom Millers will have to furnish additional proportionate security deposit.

However, some districts are following this while some are not following this. We therefore, suggest that a suitable clarification to this regard may kindly be issued to all the CSOs. Initially, the millers may be asked to furnish minimum security deposit as per last year and may be allowed to execute agreement. It will be obligatory on the part of the millers to furnish more proportionate security in case paddy valued at more than 10 times of the Security deposit is delivered. Misunderstanding is still persistent and millers as well as district administration are confused.

We therefore, request your honour to issue suitable clarification to all the CSO-cum-District Managers immediately and oblige.

Yours faithfully,
